

Dear Colleague,

the Organizers of the 6th Conference on Biocatalysis in Non-Conventional Media - BNCM 2021 are pleased to invite you in this meeting that brings together outstanding scientists from academia and industry.

The conference is organized in five scientific sessions:

Flow-based bioprocesses

Multi-phase biocatalytic systems

Biocatalysis in non-conventional media

Water- and solvent-free reaction systems

BNCM: from lab to industrial scale

The program of BNCM 2021, which will be held as a virtual (digital) event, includes internationally recognized speakers, oral and poster sessions dedicated to the selected abstracts.
